

ETHICS IN GOVERNMENT: A CONVERSATION WITH YOUR INTEGRITY COMMISSIONERS

Price $20 general admission, $10 students (to cover costs)

3 CPD Hours | Tuesday May 11, 2021 | Register here

Ethics is interwoven into everything that we do. This is especially true for public servants. While we execute the mandates of our departments and the elected officials we serve, we make countless ethical decisions in our business and personal lives daily. The work of serving the public interest is a noble but often complicated pursuit.

FMI – Ontario Chapter is delighted to welcome Ontario Integrity Commissioner Wake and Toronto Integrity Commissioner Batty. Experience this unique opportunity to hear how the Integrity Commissioners' offices work at both the provincial and municipal level. After the Integrity Commissioners discuss their mandates, you will have the opportunity to join the conversation by asking questions to learn more about upcoming trends and considerations in their offices.

INTEGRITY COMMISSIONER
J. DAVID WAKE
Ontario

The Honourable J. David Wake was appointed Ontario's Integrity Commissioner in 2016 and renewed for a second term in 2021. He was previously Associate Chief Justice of the Ontario Court of Justice from 1999 to 2005, after which he returned to presiding duties in Brampton and then Ottawa. In 2013, Commissioner Wake was appointed Vice-Chairperson of the new federal Social Security Tribunal for Employment Insurance, Canada Pension Plan and Old Age Security appeals.

Commissioner Wake was called to the Bar of Ontario in 1974 and practised law in Ottawa for 20 years. He was an instructor in criminal law for many years at the Bar Admission Course. Commissioner Wake is a co-author of the Annotated Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and a Contributing Writer and Reviewer of Ontario Courtroom Procedure. He assisted in the planning and development of a national program for newly-appointed judges and has presented at this program since 2004. He has lectured at seminars and conferences locally and internationally.

JONATHAN BATTY
City of Toronto

Prior to his appointment, Commissioner Batty was the Associate Chair of two provincial adjudicative tribunals, the Licence Appeal Tribunal and the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario. Before that, he was the Director of Compliance and General Counsel at Elections Ontario for a ten year period. Commissioner Batty has practiced in the field of public and administrative law throughout his career, which has included being counsel for the governments of Ontario and Canada, the Law Society of Ontario, and at a legal aid clinic specializing in disability rights cases. He has taught professional responsibility and public law in the bar admission course, is a member of a number of professional associations, and has spoken at conferences for lawyers and public officials in Ontario, the United States, and internationally about regulatory best practices. He is called to the Bar in Ontario.
