

FMI Regional Learning Series 2025:
Emerging Trends and Challenges Facing Public Sector Organizations

Sheila Dodds, CPA, CA, CIA
Acting Auditor General of British Columbia

Role of the Auditor General of B.C.

Office of the Auditor General
of British Columbia

Workforce planning in a time of fiscal constraint and generational change

- Recruitment, retirements, and retention
- Generational diversity in the workforce

Office of the Auditor General
of British Columbia

New technology: artificial intelligence

---

- Artificial intelligence and public sector organizations
  - Expanding use of artificial intelligence
  - Considerations for auditors

Office of the
Auditor General
of British Columbia

Indigenous Reconciliation

---

- The Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act (DRIPA) and audit considerations
- Emerging sustainability standards

Office of the
Auditor General
of British Columbia

Navigating what's next

---

- Listening to the public and hearing their concerns
- We are on this journey with public sector organizations
- Find updates on our work across all social media platforms or at oag.bc.ca

Office of the
Auditor General
of British Columbia

An independent office of the legislature